PUBLIC SCHOOLS (NEARBY)

χpeý Elementary

4.93 KM away

Kindergarten, Elementary and Middle

1950 E Hastings St, Vancouver, BC V5L, Canada

As an Indigenous Focus Choice School, χpeý welcomes both Indigenous and non-Indigenous students from across the district. In 2017, the school was rezoned, and its catchment was re-distributed to neighbouring schools. Macdonald Elementary was renamed χpeý Elementary School to honor our local Indigenous communities on which the school is built, on October 23, 2017. χpeý means "cedar" in the hən̓q̓əmi̓n̓əm̓ language. χpeý Elementary is located at the corner of East Hastings and Victoria Drive and currently serves 85 Kindergarten to Grade 7 students. Of those, 74 identify as Indigenous. Families are an integral part of our school community and are welcome in our All Nations Room at any time throughout the school day. χpeý staff are committed to working with families to facilitate the intergenerational learning of Indigenous knowledge and ways of being. χpeý also works closely with several external agencies and individuals who support our students' academic, social-emotional, and physical wellbeing. xpey hosts a Strong Start Program for children ranging from 0-5 years old and shares its grounds with Eagles in The Sky and Eaglets who provide both pre and before/after school daycare.

Tyee Elementary

8.05 KM away

Kindergarten, Elementary and Middle

3525 Dumfries St, Vancouver, BC V5N 3S5, Canada

Tyee is a Montessori alternative program school, committed to providing a rich learning environment for all its students based both on Montessori principles and on fulfilling the expectations of the Ministry of Education for all schools. An established application process is followed in admitting new students. There are approximately two hundred students registered in Kindergarten through Grade Seven in multi-age groupings. Students take responsibility from an early age, making decisions about how their time is spent on the learning tasks they choose under the teacher's guidance. The Montessori approach supports continuous progress, as children work on personal goals and academic challenges. Students learn to work independently, in small groups, and as members of a class. Since Tyee's beginning in the mid-1980's, parents have made a conscious choice to enroll their children in this program and are highly involved in making the school's program a success.

St. Edmund's School

1.82 KM away

Kindergarten, Elementary and Middle

535 Mahon Ave, North Vancouver, BC V7M 2R7, Canada

St. Edmund's School is among the oldest Catholic Schools in Vancouver, having opened in 1911. At that time, the dedicated Sisters of the Child Jesus, along with lay teachers and support staff, ran the school. Originally, the school had 57 students from grades one to twelve. Today, we have almost 200 students from Kindergarten to grade seven. Although the school has celebrated its centennial, the mission of St. Edmund's has changed very little - we still focus on the importance of building a faith community. As a Catholic school we share in the mission of the Church and believe that Christ's teaching must be "lived" as well as "taught". Our patron saint - Edmund - was a model of devotion and academic achievement. While he was Archbishop of Canterbury he firmly defended the rights of Church and State against corruption. He was canonized in 1247 only 7 years after his death. At our own St. Edmund's in North Vancouver we are establishing our own proud tradition of Catholic Education.

St. Thomas Aquinas Regional Secondary School

2.18 KM away

Middle and High

541 W Keith Rd, North Vancouver, BC V7M 1M5, Canada

St. Thomas Aquinas Regional Secondary School is a Catholic learning community committed to the development of the potential of each student. From its opening in 1959, St. Thomas Aquinas Regional Secondary School has served Catholic and non-Catholic students across the North Shore and beyond. As a Catholic High School, students do more than study their Christian faith through religious education courses on the Old Testament, the New Testament, Morality, Church History, Vocation and Christian Witness in the World. Students learn in an environment imbued by faith, where the dignity of the human person, one's responsibility to develop one's own gifts, and the call to serve others and the common good, shape and instill in students a sense of their own worth and their responsibility to the broader community.
